Chamber urges light and decorate for Christmas

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce agreed last week to once again encourage businesses and residents to light up and decorate for the Christmas season, by sponsoring the annual Lighting and Decorating Contest.

First, second and third prizes will be awarded in three categories: Commercial, Residential and Institutional. Commercial judging will be done on both indoor and outdoor decorating, while Residential and Institutional will be judged on their outdoor displays of lights and/or decorations.

Judging is slated for December 18.

No meeting Dec. 18

Due to the heavy pre-Christmas schedule of concerts and other activities, the Chamber has cancelled their final meeting of 1996, and will hold their first meeting of the New Year on Wednesday, January 8, 1997.

Extravaganza starts off the busy Christmas season

Elk Point's annual Christmas Extravaganza saw stores and sidewalks crowded with shoppers last Friday night, as local merchants offered numerous specials for their annual shop-to-11 p.m. event.

The evening was much more than a shopping promotion, however. Youngsters chatted with Santa, took a turn or two on the outdoor skating rink, and clamored to ride on Phil Shankowski's handsome red wagon pulled by Ollie Fedorus' vintage tractor. Shankowski spent the afternoon digging the wagon out of the snow when he found that a wagon was needed, while Fedorus offered his services on short notice to do the pulling. Both efforts were much appreciated by the Chamber, as well as those who enjoyed a wagon ride.

Young and old stopped by the Scout hall, next to Capitol Drugs, where critters Livestock and Pet Feed and Supply supplied live music performed by a cheerful crew of local talent.

The Lions Club were right near the roaring bonfire with their Community Christmas Card, while the Lioness Club was right across the street, warming up shoppers with welcome hot chocolate. Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department, who had cooperated under the direction of Lyle Frisby in flooding the rink after the site was prepared by Shamrock Valley Enterprises, was on hand Extravaganza evening to keep a watchful eye on the bonfire. The Town of Elk Point supplied the bonfire ring and firewood for the event.

Excitement mounted as the evening drew to a close, and businesses brought their draw boxes to the Co-op for the grand prize draw. Three lucky shoppers will be able to go back out and finish up their Christmas purchasing courtesy of the Chamber: Victor Stepa, who won $100 in Elk Point Bucks, young Chelsea Schnurer, who won $200, and super-lucky Jackie Whiffen-Peters, who topped off Thursday night's big 50-50 win by winning the grand prize of $300 in Elk Point Bucks. Numerous businesses also had in-store draws for everything from a child-powered car to gift certificates.

Extravaganza Committee chairperson Sherry Oszust said she felt the evening "went well. I was happy with my sales, and I feel it was well worth the effort."

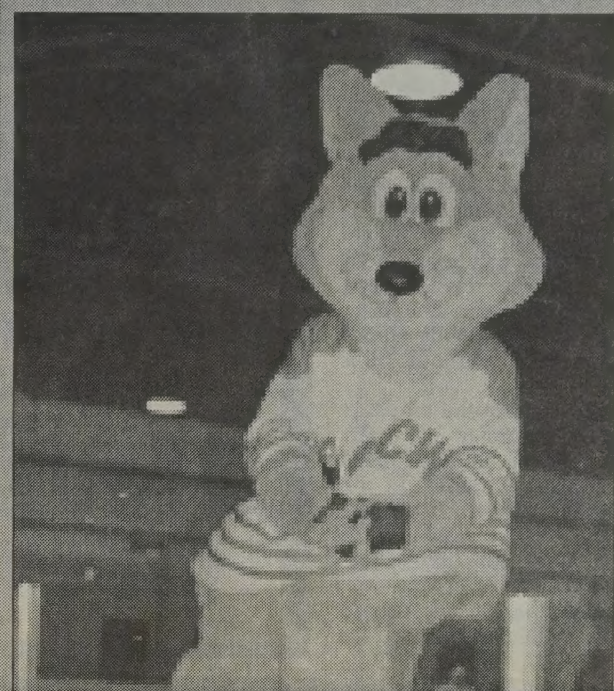

Gail Kozicky, who coordinated the Silent Auction of trees, wreaths and swags, said the evening went well at her end of town, as well. "I had a very good day. It's a good thing another truck [of merchandise] came in Saturday." She added that bids were lively on the tree located in her premises, and had heard similar reports from the other Silent Auction host businesses. Silent Auction bids are still being taken until closing time on Saturday, December 14 on the trees at critters Pet & Livestock Feed & Supply and Elk Point Co-op and on the swags at Stedmans and In Days of Olde, and until Friday at 5 p.m. on the wreath at the Elk Point Review. so there is ample time to get those bids in and help out a local organization while you decorate for the festive season. Elk Point will host two '97 Provincial tourneys

Some exciting news came to Elk Point Minor Hockey this weekend in the midst of the Thunder Midget Hockey tournament.

A phone call from Red Deer informed the Minor Hockey president that Elk Point has been successful in its bid to host the Midget 'C' Provincials on March 21, 22 and 24. Not only are we hosting Midget Boys Provincials, but we also were awarded the Girls Midget Provincials on March 6, 7 and 8, 1997.

Hockey fans will have lots of excellent sport to look forward to in 1997, with these events on the calendar.

CFCW CRITTER GETS UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL as he leaps the boards to visit the fans in the stands when he and his less-furry teammates came to town last Thursday.

Critters come to town

Last Thursday's contest between the CFCW Critters and the Elk Point Minor Hockey coaches was entirely fun, even though it wasn't entirely hockey. Serious sport went out the window when the Critters breezed in the door.

The visiting team, with their non-regulation headwear ranging from wild black wigs to cowboy hats, would have been fairly well matched with the Elk Point squad, as far as hockey skills went, if it were not for their large, furry companion.

This was a Critter with an attitude: If he couldn't score a goal, he threw down his stick and pouted. If he was caught in heavy mid-ice traffic, he grabbed shirttails, hooked opposing players with his stick, or wrestled down whoever got in his way — and chewed on them. He crawled atop the Elk Point net and put his paws over the goalie's eyes, kissed the referee, and stopped the game with his version of the Macarena.

Oh, yes — there was some hockey involved. While the Critter kept the host team distracted, his teammates scored five goals to Elk Point's two in the first period, and kept up the pace to finish with a 14 - 9 margin.

There were also a variety of prizes to be won. Sandra Woytkiw, Mike MacDonald and Zachary Mackinnon took aim in the $5000 Scoro contest, but had to be content with consolation prizes. A handsome display of donated door prizes, from Oilers tickets to a gigantic poinsettia to a hockey jersey, found new homes, and Jackie Whiffen-Peters went home much richer thanks to the super 50/50 salesmanship of Ray Danyluk. Sponsors of the event included Skolarchuk Auction Service, Double A Sports, Coca Cola (St. Paul), Meadowview Garden Centre, critters Pet and Livestock Feed & Supply, B & R Eckels, Pan Canadian Petroleum, Woody's Trophy & Gifts, Golden Loaf Bakery, Home Town Grocers, Elk Point Co-Op, Lakeland Meat Processors and Hillside Service.

The proceeds of the game, part of the CFCW Critters' Good Will Tour, will go to Elk Point Minor Hockey.

CAPC has parking, snowmobile concerns

Elk Point's Community Advisory Policing Committee met November 13 and returned Jim MacLellan to the presidential chair for another year, while Margaret Modin will retain her role as secretary-treasurer. RCMP Sgt. Peter Sherstan was welcomed to the committee.

The CAPC had a table at Information Night in September, and Doug Lee reported that this gave the group good exposure, with some people finding out about the CAPC for the first time. Concerns that had been voiced at that time involved speed infractions in town, and farm equipment and mobile homes being moved without pilot cars.

A report from the oil patch shows a number of thefts recently, involving such items as tools and batteries. In the rural area, snowmobilers are running over fields with unharvested crops, thus causing damage.

In town, people have abused the privilege of parking on the highway between Railway Ave. and 50th Ave., and the signs prohibiting parking are going back up. U-turns and speeding are still a problem as well. This latter item may be checked out with radar in the near future.

December and Christmas Concerts

By Deanna Easthope

FCSS Director

December would not be the same if there were no Christmas Concerts to attend! All the Christmas music, the plays and all the good wishes expressed, help to get us in the mood of the true meaning of Christmas. We all know why our Christmas celebrations are so important. We are remembering the birth of the baby Jesus. After the shepherds were told of his birth, a Heavenly Host of Angelic Choir sang. Wise men followed a star and brought gifts. Likewise, we celebrate in a similar manner.

Our Christmas concerts are performed in such a way that they are focusing on the meaning and spirit of Christmas. Without them, something would be missing in our Christmas celebrations.

I have made some inquiries to find out the dates and times of the different Christmas concerts occurring in Elk Point. On Wednesday, Dec. 11 and Friday, Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m. each night, at the Elk Point Elementary School, the Elk Point Community Choir will be presenting their Christmas concerts.

There will be an Interdenominational Choir Service at 7 p.m. on Dec. 15 at the Elk Point United Church.

On Wednesday, Dec. 18, there are two Christmas concerts happening. At 1 p.m., in the Elk Point Elementary School Gym, there is a Christmas Concert performed by the Monday/Wednesday Kindergarten, Grade 1, 3 and 5. Then in the evening at 7:30 p.m. at the F. G. Miller Jr./Sr. High School Gym, there will be a Musical Christmas Concert.

On Thursday, Dec. 19, the Tuesday/Thursday Kindergarten, Grade 2, 4 and 6 classes will be presenting their Christmas Concert at the Elk Point Elementary School Gym at 1 p.m. There is still one more Christmas Concert that I know about. This Christmas Concert is at the Elk Point Baptist Church on December 22 at 7 p.m.

To help you all feel welcomed and invited to any of these concerts, I have written a little poem.

A Concert Invitation

There's a concert in the town of Elk Point
No lovelier spot on Highway 41
No place to dear at Christmas as the concerts
That are performed for everyone.

Come to the concert in the town of Elk Point
To hear the performances swell there
Where the singing, talking and acting are presented with care.
It wouldn't be the same if you're not there.

Single Styles Hair Care Ltd.

Leah, Annette, Melinda and (not shown) Kathy wish all their customers a happy holiday season.

Annette Ference, owner and operator of Single Styles has been styling hair for 12 years in Elk Point. She has seen styles come and go, and Annette says that styles and styling techniques "are sure different" than when she first started in 1985.

"I've always kept up with the latest styles and techniques by attending several hair shows and classes all over — Vancouver, Toronto, Las Vegas. I was chosen by Tressa Experts to attend an intense 3 day course on products and techniques in Cincinnati, Ohio. I have also done stage work in Edmonton and taught advance classes as far away as Fort McMurray. I don't teach any more due to the shop being so busy.

"I have also had several hair stylists apprentice under me. Melinda Boratynec has been working with me for 5 years and is one of the finest hair stylists. Melinda will be getting married in July and I'm glad to say she will be continuing to work with me. Kathy Kozina works part time to make sure everything is clean and tidy.

"I would like to introduce my newest member to Single Styles, Leah Yakemchuk. Leah has completed her course at Marvel College in Edmonton and was working in Edmonton at Hair Gardens and at Marvel College. She will now be apprenticing with me," Annette says. "I can see another great hair stylist on her way."

"When I have a hair stylist, I work with her and try to teach her as much as possible. I feel I have a great team, we all enjoy working with each other, and after twelve years, I still love what I do. It's thanks to all my customers that trust our judgement on styles and technique, for their support. A special thanks for those who come a great distance, and all the loyal clients from Elk Point who gave me a chance twelve years ago — and still trust me!"

"I would also like to thank my parents, Steve and Olga Ference, and brothers David, Lawrence and Allen for all their support. I could always count on their help when I needed it." Single Styles is relocating and will be open on January 3, 1997 in the new hardware store south of Co-op. They will be closed December 30 through January 2.

Music and books with a Christmas theme

By Michele Ducek

Librarian

The library is giving away a 1997 Young Alberta Book Society calendar to some lucky library user. Each time you check out items at the library you can enter your name in our draw for a calendar. Come in and check out some books as well.

Just in time for the holidays we have a bunch of Christmas music:

A Sesame Street Christmas features several holiday classics as only the gang from Sesame Street can do them. A wonderful treat for kids. (I love this tape.)

Holly & Ivy by Natalie Cole

is a collection of songs for the holidays including "The Christmas Song," made famous by her father.

Barbra Streisand: A Christmas Album. Need I say more?

Greatest Children's Christmas Hits features Gene Autry's "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" and Elmo & Patsy's "Grandma Got Run Over by a Reindeer."

Christmas for the '90s features country music stars singing Yuletide classics.

We also have a few other Christmas titles in our music section.

Another Christmas present is Santa Paws by Nicholas Edwards. A puppy finds himself cold and alone in the dead of winter and tries to find a home for himself during the Christmas season. (Read it, liked it, recommend it.)

As for other Christmas books, we have a pile of them.

Other new titles include: The Child Care Activity Book by Jacqueline Duncan and Jackie Biltcliffe contains over 100 activities with monthly themes.

Cooking with Children by Marion Cunningham features 15 basic cooking lessons that enable children to master essential techniques and cook, all on their own, 35 dishes.

Cybersurfer: the OWL Internet Guide for Kids by Nyla Hamad is a guide for the Internet aimed at children.

The Jewish Primer by Rabbi Shmuel Himelstein uses a question and answer format to provide information on the Jewish religion.

The Pacific Province: A History of British Columbia examines the social, economic, cultural and political development of our westernmost province.

I Never Sold My Saddle by Ian Tyson is a no-holds-barred portrait of the legendary folk and cowboy singer.

4-H Multi Club election results

By Robyn Danyluk

4-H Multi Club Reporter

The Elk Point 4-H Club held its meeting November 27, 1996, where we held our club's elections. The results were: President - Tim Havener, Vice-President - Kyle Bintz, Secretary and Parliamentarian - Marci Bintz, Treasurer - Peter Danyluk, Historian - Kirsty Lindquist, Craft Reporter - Erin Bintz, and Multi and Beef Reporter - Robyn Danyluk

This year's club consists of a total of 35 members. The Beef Club's weigh day was November 17, 1996 at Danyluk's farm. Twenty five steers were weighed, and 11 members have heifer projects. There are also 11 members involved in the crafts projects this year.

The Elk Point 4-H Multi Club is involved in some new and interesting projects. Eight members are trying out wood-working, which will start in January and is led by David Shankowski. This year Nichole Havener is doing a photography project with the assistance of Lorraine Danyluk.

Our Christmas party will be held December 22, 1996 at the Armistice Hall. We are planning many fun filled activities, but will especially be looking forward to the side-splitting entertainment of Tom-Tom Kurek!

The 4-H Club is offering "Spur-of-the-Moment Calendars," they can be purchased for $10.00 at the Elk Point Review.

The year is looking very busy and exciting. Good luck to all members on their projects. Remember to "Learn to do by doing" and have fun!

THANK YOU!

I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends of the Elk Point and area community for their prayers, support and caring messages during my recent illness and to take this opportunity for Norman and myself to wish each and everyone of you the blessings of peace, joy and happiness during this Christmas and the coming year.

Jill Hartley

THANK YOU

I want to thank my family, friends and neighbors for all the get-well cards, flowers, phone calls, food and visits while convalescing from my surgery. Thanks to Donna for being with me in the hospital and after I got home.

Thank You and God Bless You All.

Pitbulls win Thunder tournament in a hard-fought final

By Doug Bassett
Elk Point Minor Hockey
For the second straight year, the Kitscoty Pitbulls have taken the trophy as winners of the annual Thunder midget hockey tournament.

Winning four straight games in round robin play, the Pitbulls met the Thunder in the final Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in what turned into a true championship game. Thunder had the second best record in round robin play, defeating Vegreville and Vermilion, sending them to the final game against their arch rivals.

Big #9 Loren Kozicky, scoring 8 goals on the weekend, scored the only goal in the first period. Early in the second Shawn Moroziuk scored on a nice shot from the point to give the Thunder a two goal lead, but Kitscoty answered with three goals in the second before Loren scored his second of the game to tie it up again after 40 minutes. Goaltender Rob Murry stoned the Pitbulls in the second on a questionable penalty shot.

The Thunder took the lead again early in the third with a goal by captain Marty Bendixen, wh also had a very good weekend, winning two game MVPs, but it wasn't enough to win this one. With four tough games in round robin, the Thunder started the final game with three men injured, and lost another during the final. Even though they lost the final, the Thunder, with a short bench, played their best game of the season.

This week the Thunder hosts Vermilion on Friday night at 8 p.m. then travel northeast to Pierceland on Sunday afternoon.

KITSCOTY PITBULLS won their second annual championship at the Thunder Midget Tournament this weekend.

ELK POINT THUNDER lost out in a challenging and exciting final game to their arch-rivals.
